Sculpture / New Genres Minor

The Sculpture/New Genres minor provides students the opportunity to explore the technical, formal, historical, and theoretical concerns of creating meaningful objects, installations and time-based art (including video, sound and performance) through a combination of studio and art history courses. Students will explore a range of techniques and methods while developing individual artistic practices in three and four dimensions.

Eligibility
The Sculpture/New Genres minor is open to students majoring in Communication Arts, Digital Media, Environmental Design, Fashion Design, Product Design and Toy Design. Students must be on track in their major and in good academic standing, with no more than 6 credits behind and a cumulative GPA of 2.0. Sculpture/New Genres minors will only participate in the Senior Show of their home department, however depending on space availability, they may utilize Fine Arts Senior Studios on a case-by-case basis with approval from the Department Chair.

Required Courses

SCNG204	Sculpture/New Genres I	3.0	(fall only)
AHCS226	Contemporary Art Survey	3.0	(fall only)
FINA200 -or-	Sophomore Seminar I	2.0	(fall only)
