

Entrepreneurship Minor

Students who minor in Entrepreneurship will dive deep into the world of start-ups, small businesses, and solo-preneurship within the Creative Economy. This minor will prepare students to form their own studio, office, firm or organization; develop their work, products or services; and market themselves for visibility, recognition, and success.

Learning Outcomes:

Students who complete the Entrepreneurship Minor will be able to

- Use quantitative and qualitative analytical and critical thinking skills to evaluate information, solve problems, and make sound business/entrepreneurial decisions
- Express creative and innovative entrepreneurial pursuits in visual, written and oral forms
- Demonstrate an awareness of the legal, social, ethical and environmental impacts of various art and design business models and practices
- Demonstrate familiarity with different leadership theories and identify their own leadership style, tendencies, and potential areas for growth and improvement
- Participate in and reflect on professional practice training through internships and incubators

Eligibility

The Entrepreneurship minor is open to Communication Arts, Digital Media, Fashion Design, Fine Arts, Product Design and Toy Design majors. Because of their major curricular requirements Environmental Design majors will only be approved to enroll on a case-by-case basis. Students must be on track in their major and in good academic standing, with fewer than 6 credits behind and a cumulative GPA of 2.0.

Required Courses

ENTR300	Introduction to Entrepreneurship	2.0	(fall only)
LIBS317	Issues in Entrepreneurship	3.0	(spring only)
MATH137	Money Matters	3.0	(any semester)
ENTR310	Entrepreneurial Internship	2.0	(fall only)
LIBS318	Business Writing	3.0	(spring only)
ENTR400	Launchpad	2.0	(spring only)
Total Credits		15.0

See Interdisciplinary Studies and Liberal Arts and Sciences for course descriptions.

Each enrolled student will receive an individual Academic Plan that outlines how this minor fits into their major.
