Graphic Design Minor

Students who minor in Graphic Design develop skills in visual communication through the relationship between typography and imagery, across a wide range of digital and analog media. Responding to specific design problems and audiences, their work can take traditional and experimental forms such as posters, books, brochures, websites, apps, motion graphics, environmental graphics and more.

Eligibility

Open to all BFA majors, except Graphic Design. Students must be on track in their major and in good academic standing, with fewer than 6 credits behind and a cumulative GPA of 2.0.

Requirements

15 Credits of Graphic Design courses (5 studio courses or 4 studio courses + 1 LAS course)

Students select courses based on guidance from the Director of Interdisciplinary Studies, Minor Area Heads and Academic Advisors and must follow prerequisites when applicable. For the full list of courses that will count for this minor, along with recommended courses to take first, see the Minors Course Lists on the Registration page of the Dashboard (my.otis.edu). Students are advised to take minor classes in place of studio electives (or in place of one LAS elective), or for majors without electives by taking one extra class in each of 5 semesters spread out between sophomore and senior year.

See Graphic Design & Liberal Arts and Sciences Departments for course descriptions.

Each student will receive an individual academic plan that outlines how this minor fits into their major.
