6. The following methodology was used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under the CRRSAA and ARP (a)(1) programs:
Eligibility criteria: Students with exceptional need - undergraduate and graduate students with an official FAFSA/CA Dream Act Application EFC below 30000. Award amounts varied based on EFC: the highest amount was offered to students with EFC within the Pell eligibility range. Priority was given to students who met the EFC requirement and submitted an appeal due to financial hardship. Students who met the EFC requirement and accepted all offered awards (scholarships, grants, and loans) were given priority. In addition, international students impacted by war in their home country were eligible to receive this award.
7. Students were notified regarding their eligibility for the HEERF II and HEERF III funding. The notification included information regarding students' option to authorize the funds to pay for their outstanding charges and the link to the Authorization Form. Students awarded the HEERF II and III grants were notified of their award via email.
