TRAVEL STUDY

PARIS

March 13th - 22nd, 2014

Global Perspective on Fashion, Paris 2014 will expose students to Parisian art, culture and lifestyle.

This is an exciting opportunity to acquire an in-depth understanding of the luxury retail fashion industry and various fashion markets of the leading fashion capital of the world.

Students will spend 8 days exploring major landmarks of Paris such as Versailles, Sacre Coeur and the Eiffel Tower. Visits to the world's top ranking museums like the Louvre museum, Musee d'Orsay, and the Centre Pompidou.

Guided tours of influential luxury retail stores and couture houses, hot shopping spots such as Le Marais and Les Halles, as well as trendy flea markets will be visited. Students will have an excellent chance to find inspiration for their design work, analyzing Parisian trends and forecasts, while developing international travel experience and networking opportunities.

WHO IS WELCOME TO ENROLL?

All Otis Fashion Design students - Sophomore, Junior and Senior levels can sign up for this exciting field trip. This course will allow students to develop sketch books for their upcoming e-portfolios, portfolio development course and personal blogs.
