CAB members gain skills in leadership, event planning, budgeting, time management, and teamwork.
Peer Mentors are guides for all first-year students. They organize programming that engages the newest class of Otis College.

First Year Students can reach out to Peer Mentors whenever they have questions about academics, campus life, or want to hang out and grab some food! Mentors host special events specifically for first-year students such as Finding Friends, Planner Making, Tea Events, and Bonfires and S’mores.

TISO members are peer mentors for new international students. They also plan cross-cultural events that focus on diversity and inclusion.
The Students’ Union is a committee of students dedicated to addressing and advocating for the needs, issues, and concerns of the student body.

Some of their accomplishments include:

- Implementing the Food Pantry
- Introducing the Freedom Wall
- Restarting the Resource Exchange

How to reach out:

Representatives from the Students’ Union can be reached at SU@otis.edu if you have any questions or would like to get more involved on campus.

AFFINITY GROUPS

Otis College Affinity Groups aim to provide open and welcoming spaces for students who wish to connect with other Otis community members who share similar identities.

AFFINITY GROUPS HAVE A MISSION TO SUSTAIN AN INCLUSIVE CAMPUS THAT WELCOMES DIVERSITY AND EMBRACES DIFFERENT CULTURES, BACKGROUNDS, AND IDENTITIES

Affinity Groups are open to all faculty, staff, students, and alumni of Otis College of Art and Design. We have groups dedicated to the LGBTQ, BIPOC, Veteran, International, and First-gen student communities!

If you would like more information on how to get involved as a student leader, how to facilitate programming as an Affinity Group member, or how to start a registered affinity group on campus, please reach out to the Director of Student Activities, Erica Javidzad, at Ejavidzad@otis.edu.
