

Sculpture / New Genres Minor

The Sculpture/New Genres minor provides students the opportunity to explore the technical, formal, historical, and theoretical concerns of creating meaningful objects, installations and time-based art (including video, sound and performance) through a combination of studio and art history courses. Students will explore a range of techniques and methods while developing individual artistic practices in three and four dimensions.

Eligibility

The Sculpture/New Genres minor is open to students majoring in Communication Arts and Digital Media. Because of their major curricular requirements Architecture/Landscape/Interiors, Fashion Design, Product Design and Toy Design majors will only be approved to enroll on a case-by-case basis. Sculpture/New Genres minors will only participate in the Senior Show of their home department, however depending on space availability, they may utilize Fine Arts Senior Studios on a case-by-case basis with approval from the Department Chair.

Required Courses

SCNG204	Sculpture/New Genres I	3.0	(fall only)
AHCS226	Contemporary Art Survey	3.0	(fall only)
FINA200 -or-	Sophomore Seminar I	2.0	(fall only)
FINA201	Sophomore Seminar II		(spring only)
SCNG214	Sculpture/New Genres II	3.0	(spring only)
	Sculpture/New Genres electives	4.0	(any semester)

Total 15.0

See Fine Arts & Liberal Arts and Sciences Departments for Course Descriptions.

Each enrolled student will receive an individual Academic Plan that outlines how this minor fits into their major.
